About Strong Interest Inventory®

Strong is the world's leading and best researched measure of occupational interests. It is used to help people understand their work interests and to illustrate the kinds of work from which they might gain satisfaction. It is a vital tool for counselors working with students exploring career options and subject choices, clients considering or exploring job changes, those interested in career development and people interested in understanding job satisfaction and dissatisfaction.

Who Should Attend?

The program is designed for career guidance counselors, outplacement specialists, HR consultants and other HR professionals who are familiar with basic career guidance procedures.

The Training & Certification Program

- Overview of the instrument including the six general occupational themes, 30 Basic Interest Scales, 244 Occupational Scales and four Personal Style Scales
- Application of results to career development, change and job fit
- Feedback skills and answering client questions
- Reliability and validity of the scales and results
- Administration and scoring of Strong Interest Inventory®

Pre-Program Preparation/Qualification
